

Absolut Form Press Release

A NEW BRUSH JOINS THE FAMILY

Top Drawer, Earls Court One, 16th – 18th January 2005, Stand K40

Absolut Form presents a new addition to the innovative stainless steel and silicone brush range created by exciting young Danish designer Marcus Vagnby. The new Barbeque Brush boasts a long flat handle featuring raised bumps to ensure the perfect, non-slip grip. The wide brush makes easy work of basting or glazing and it can be kept to hand at the barbie or stored neatly in the kitchen using the hanging hook.

Ideal for barbeques, grill or pastry use, the bristles are made from silicone, heat resistant to 300°C and sealed into the handle to ensure that none are left behind on your barbequed chicken, chops or corn on the cob!

Plus! The unique groove in the bristles avoids mess because butter, oil or marinade stays on them and not on the table or patio attracting unwanted ants and flies!

Plus! Hygiene is assured as the brush is designed to lie on its side so its silicone bristles do not come into contact with any surface.

The brush is easy to clean and dishwasher friendly.

The new Barbeque Brush joins the original Baster and Pastry Brushes and forms part of the PEJ collection at Absolut Form.
